By deleting the body of Senate Amendment No. 6 in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

By deleting from the amendatory language of Section 1(1) the following language:

(1) Gambling is contrary to the public policy of this state and shall mean risking anything of value for a profit whose return is to any degree contingent on chance or any activity employing any form of casino gambling, including, but not limited to, blackjack, craps, roulette, poker, baccarat, keno, slot machines, machines designated as either Class II or Class III under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, or employing any electronic or electromechanical imitation or simulation of any form of casino gambling. For the purposes of this chapter gambling does not include:
